

The Complaint also asserts claims for violations of comparable State law on behalf of the State of Indiana. Under the proposed Consent Decree, the City would be required to: (1) Implement a Long Term Control Plan which would greatly reduce Combined Sewer Overflows; (2) implement a plan designed to eliminate Sanitary Sewer Discharges; (3) perform a Supplemental [[Page 61509]] Environmental Project which must cost a minimum of $2 million; (4) pay to the United States a civil penalty of $588,900; (5) either pay the State a civil penalty of $588,900, or pay the State a civil penalty of $58,890 and undertake a State Supplemental Environmental Project which must cost a minimum of $1,060,020; and (6) perform various other remedial measures. The injunctive relief that would be secured by the proposed Consent Decree is expected to cost approximately $1.868 billion in 2005 dollars. The Long Term Control Plan includes a construction schedule of twenty years (from the anticipated date of approval of the Long Term Control Plan). The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the proposed Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to United States and State of Indiana v. City of Indianapolis, D.J. Ref. 90-5-1-1-07292.
